Online board meeting packet preparation tools

Streamline the preparation, distribution, and publishing of agenda packets with BoardBook.

- Savings on printing and copying expenses.
- Significant reduction in agenda preparation time.
- Timely delivery and availability of meeting materials to school board members and the public.
- Links to IASB and local district resources.
- Easy to learn and use.

Conduct paperless meetings!

BoardBook is a Web-based application service that builds a searchable archive of meeting packets and approved minutes. It opens the door to electronically distributing the agenda to the board and posting selected materials online — making it possible for you to conduct paperless meetings.

What does it cost?

BoardBook is available on a subscription basis. There is no software to install. There are no set-up fees. A subscription includes:

- Personalized staff training
- Customization for your district
- Excellent telephone support service
- Online help features

Contact the IASB Policy Services consultants listed below for current annual subscription fees.
