LEADERSHIP STARTS HERE

The Illinois Association of School Boards presents

From Operations to Culture: SAFETY IMPACTS LEARNING

WHO'S INVITED:

- School board members
- School superintendents and principals
- School resource officers
- School security directors/coordinators
- Emergency responders
- Local emergency management agencies
- Safety professionals who work with school districts in preparing and carrying out security procedures

FEES:

Half-Day School Safety and Security Seminar:

- $140 (or $190 On-Site)
Includes continental breakfast.

Joint Annual Conference (Eight additional safety and security panel sessions):

- $445 (or $470 On-Site)
Includes full conference access.

For the first time, the Illinois Association of School Boards will host a half-day School Safety and Security Seminar, “From Operations to Culture: Safety Impacts Learning” as part of the Joint Annual Conference. School districts are encouraged to invite personnel from their school district and community, including safety professionals outside of their school district, who work with their district in preparing and carrying out security procedures. Some professionals who could benefit from this seminar are: school resource officers, school security directors/coordinators, emergency responders, local emergency management agencies, and other school leaders.

Safety and security has become a top priority for school districts across the nation; this seminar will provide participants with current and vital information from experts in the school safety field on emergency plans, training, safety drills, building design, and culture and climate.

Join in on Friday, Nov. 18, 2016, from 8 a.m to 12 p.m. A continental breakfast will kick off the seminar followed by three hour-long sessions covering the following safety topics: Safety Procedures and School Safety Drill Act, Physical Plant and School Buildings, and School Climate and Culture.

Separate registration and fee are required. See the back of this brochure for instructions to register.
