84th IASB • IASA • IASBO
Joint Annual Conference

November 18-20, 2016 • Chicago

Choose to visit one of four schools, two elementary schools and two high schools, covering a variety of neighborhoods that contribute in educating children as exemplary leaders.

Advanced registration and fee are required.

LEADERSHIP STARTS HERE

For the last 45 years, IASB in cooperation with the Chicago Board of Education has provided an opportunity for educators to visit a Chicago school through the Chicago Schools Tour at the Joint Annual Conference. This year we are offering four tours: two of elementary schools; two of high schools, that contribute in educating children as exemplary leaders. Additionally, the Tour features schools with a strong fine arts emphasis. Join in interesting, informative, and educational moments with informal interactions as you tour a school's unique learning environment, meet teachers and students, and experience the inspiring learning taking place in their classrooms. Choose from

- Nettelhorst Elementary School — A PreK-8 magnet cluster neighborhood school offering an International Fine and Performing Arts Program, combining the visual and performing arts with world culture. www.nettelhorst.org
- Gunsaulus Elementary Scholastic Academy — A PreK-8 city-wide magnet school committed to creating a community school that meets student needs academically, socio-emotionally and artistically. www.gunsaulus.org
- Chicago High School for the Arts — Chicago's first public arts high school offers a college prep curriculum and pre-professional arts training aimed to encourage intellectual curiosity and develop critical thinking skills. www.chiarts.org
- Little Black Pearl Art and Design Academy — A small charter high school focused on student learning through the arts. www.lbpacademy.org

The tour event begins with a buffet breakfast at 8 a.m. in the Crystal A Ballroom, located at street level in the Hyatt Chicago Regency West Tower. Tour buses will depart immediately after the breakfast at 8:45 a.m. from the hotel lobby.

Space is limited to 160 reservations. Register today by mail, fax, or scan. Walking the halls of these schools is an extraordinary experience, and also one of the best bargains of the Conference.

PARTICIPATING SCHOOLS

WIDE VARIETY OF BEAUTIFUL AND MULTI-CULTURAL ARTWORK ON DISPLAY

Nettelhorst Elementary School

PreK-8, Neighborhood, Magnet Cluster School
Yasmeen Muhammad-Leonard, Principal
3252 N. Broadway St. 60657
773/534-5810

As a neighborhood school, Nettelhorst is home to students who reside within the attendance area of the Lakeview neighborhood. The building, built in 1892, is its own art gallery. Aside from providing a rigorous PreK – 8 academic curriculum, Nettelhorst students also benefit from artist residencies and partnerships in other art forms, such as vocal music, instrumental music, and movement. Visual art lessons focus on art techniques and skills, art concepts, and art history from around the globe. Students have opportunities to learn techniques in painting, drawing, printmaking, sculpting, collage and more.

TARGETING STUDENTS' INDIVIDUAL NEEDS AND ENHANCING CRITICAL THINKING

Gunsaulus Elementary Scholastic Academy

PreK-8, Citywide Magnet School
Kiltae Fernando Kim, Principal
Jessica Christopher, Co-Principal
4420 S. Sacramento Ave. 60632
773/535-7215

Gunsaulus is a magnet school in the Brighton Park neighborhood focused on rigorous academics, arts, health, and wellness. The performing arts program includes the entire school. Students work with mediums ranging from ceramics and sculpture to printmaking and drawing. They also examine the intellectual aspects of what is art and how to convey meaning in artwork.

COLLEGE-PREPARATORY, PRE-PROFESSIONAL ARTS TRAINING PROGRAM

Chicago High School for the Arts

Grades 9-12, Fine and Performing Arts Contract School
Michael Wang, Principal
2714 W Augusta Blvd. 60622
773/534-9710

Located in the Humboldt Park neighborhood, the Chicago High School for the Arts (ChiArts) serves a dual mission for its artistically gifted and highly diverse student population by providing a comprehensive college preparatory academic curriculum alongside intensive pre-professional arts training. ChiArts is home to scholar-artists of all races, ethnicities, socioeconomic backgrounds, and training histories, holding dear the belief that an education in the arts can be a transformative force for all young people, whether or not they choose to pursue a career in an artistic discipline.

Chicago High School for the Arts — wheelchair accessible transportation for this tour will be made available only if requested at time of registration. Please contact Bridget Trojan, 630/629-3776, ext. 1236 or via email at btrojan@iasb.com.

PROVIDING A SOLID FOUNDATION IN THE "BUSINESS OF ART"

Little Black Pearl Art and Design Academy

Grades 9-12, Charter School
Necole Muhammad, Principal
1060 E 47th. St. 60653
773/690-5500

Little Black Pearl is a small charter school focused on art, and especially on students learning through the arts. Students at Little Black Pearl, who are selected from all over the city of Chicago, feel safe and open to exploring, expressing, and challenging their ideas and feelings through art. They have shown great success combining both art and entrepreneurship through the real life application of talent, interest, and skills.
